

Without You (Theme from the Movie "One More Try")

Angeline Quinto

Without you to hold me
And heal my heart
To guide me and keep me
From falling apartMy life is so empty so hollow and cold
Footsteps and echoes
Of nowhere to goWithout you, without you
I know I'm all alone
I can't go on this way
Day by day
Without you, who am I
What am I to do
My life's out of focus and so are my viewsI need you to give me
The strength to go on
A reason for hope
And writing this songWithout you, without you
I know I'm all alone
I can't go on this way
Day by dayI can't go on this way
Day by dayWithout you, without you
I know I'm all alone
I can't go on this way
Day by dayWithout you, without you
I know I'm all alone
I can't go on this way
Day by day
