Invisible

Brian McFadden

Can you hear me
As I'm calling out your name
When you touch me
Do you feel it just the same
Cos you dance like no one's watching
And you love like no one's thereCan you see me here I am always there
If all of this feelings come and go
Then life is wasted on you
I'm not gonna throw it all awayChorus:
Can you see me now
Am I coming throughAm I invisible
Could we have had something incredible
Is this the way it's meant to be
I'm the man that you will never seeCan you help me
Deal with all this pain
In one moment yeah eveything can change
Are you waiting for the hero
You know heros often fallCan you see me as I'm after all
If all of this feelings come and go
Then life is wasted on you
I'm not gonna throw it all awayChorus:
Can you see me now
Am I coming through
Am I invisible
Could we have had something incredible
Is this the way it's meant to be
I'm the man that you will never seeLike two large souls and broken heart
Is it destiny that's keeping us apart
I could live my life in this transparency
I'm the man that you will never seeCos you dance like no one's watching
And you love like no one's there
Can you see me, here I am always thereChorus:
Can you see me now
Am I coming through
Am I invisible
Could we have had something incredible
Is this the way it's meant to be
I'm the man that you will never seeLike two large souls and broken heart
Is it destiny that's keeping us apart

I could live my life in this transparency
I'm the man that you will never see

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/