

Bicycle Thief

Duncan Sheik

So I'm gliding down the street
Passing by all you people
I suppose I'll never meet
Some of you glare at me
Some of you stare at me
But I am no bicycle thief Try not to lie
Try not to cheat
A feeling' I try not to repeat
I say somethings beggars believe
But I am no bicycle thief All of your little crimes
Can you leave them all behind
*I'm just an accomplice
Where do you draw the line
I draw it all the time
*I am just an accomplice When I ride by, what do you see
Just some guy looking for a quick release
Sometimes you frown
You try and stare me down
But I am no bicycle thief And all is said and done
Always hurt someone
*You're at least an accomplice
Get it if you can
Never kill a man
*But you're still an accomplice Somewhere there underneath
I know the ride is going be too brief
Hope for another
Then you may discover
That I am no bicycle thief All of your little crimes
Can you leave them all behind
*Are you just an accomplice
Where do you draw the line
You draw it all the time
*Are you just an accomplice
And all is said and done
Always hurt someone
*You're at least an accomplice
Get it if you can
You'd never kill a man
