Betrayed

Rich Kids on LSD

Betrayed
Feelings of rejection, no false hopes or misconception
Just a burning in my head and in my heart
Promises were made, friendship lost along the way

A twisted path of lies, deception from the start
The future lay in your hands with talk of stardom, all your plans
We had our dreams, high hopes, we trusted you
But the decisions that you made

And the staring role you played
Quickly made us realize what we must do
And I gave my trust to you
Got stabbed in the back and left for dead

Why'd you do the things you do?
With all the lies, deceit, wrong things got said
Never expected this of you
I should've known better than to do what I did

I was blind and you were shrewd
Had me eating from your hand like a naive little kid
Laid down my guard, wound up screwed

Betrayed

There comes a time in every life
When quickly we must learn from our mistakes
Now trusting no one, guard held high
Second guessing all the chances that he takes

We all must learn to use the term "my friend"
To those deserving of the phrase
Avoiding the pain and all the rage from knowing
That you've been betrayed

Never again will I trust you
Left for dead, knife buried in my back
I wish I would have knew

Your sneakiness, plan of attack

This is what you do
Lying, cheating, and all that crap
No chance for number two
With my guard held high and my wall built strong
Next time around I'll screw you

There comes the time in all of our lives
When quickly we must learn from our mistakes
Not knowing why we made them, just the outcome
And the feelings they create

Whether it's sadness, loss of trust, death, pain, forgiveness,
Love, joy, sex, happiness, or fate,
It's one of these, the biggest one, that I really hate
It's a feeling you get when a trust so deep

A trust between friends has been broken
And you know you got played, it's that feeling
You straight up been betrayed

Betrayed
Betrayed
Betrayed
Betrayed
Betrayed
Straight up been Betrayed
Betrayed

There comes the time in every life
When quickly we must learn from our mistakes
Betrayed
Now trusting no one
Guard held high, second guessing
All the chances that he takes
Betrayed
