The Real Me

Loyiso Bala

A long long time ago so far away
A boy had left his home and found his way
Time and time again he heard them say
Change the one you are and run far away

Can't go back now, wont even try
Won't go back now -- this is his his cry

Can't Fake me, take me
Love me or leave me
This is the real me
Can't break me, make me change who I will be
This is the real me

Don't listen to what they, you say the same
Don't do what people say and take the blame

Can't go back now, won't even try
Won't go back now -- this is is his cry

Can't Fake me, take me
Love me or leave
This is the real me
Can't break me, make me change who I will be
This is the real me

Can't Fake me, take me
Love me or leave
This is the real me
Can't break me, make me change who I will be
This is the real me
