Oh, oh, oh Shut UpYou say you want me That you hate me Try to love me want to break me Guess I'm sleeping on the couch again You say no, when you mean yes Is this a game some kind of test Now why can't we just Turn out the light Forget how to fight Cause we got tonightCause, When we take our clothes off Don't you know the world stops When we touch, when we kiss When we shut up for a moment We are minded by the one thing You on me or nothing When we touch, when we kiss, When we shut up Don't say anything at all You throw a glass straight at my head Swear up and down you want me dead I guess love is in the air tonight You bite my neck, I pull your hair Next thing we know, no underwear Now why can't we just Turn out the light, forget how to fight Cause we got tonightCause, When we take our clothes off Don't you know the world stops When we touch, when we kiss When we shut up for a moment (Turn out the light) We are minded by the one thing (Forget how to fight)

You on me or nothing (We got tonight)

When we touch, when we kiss,

When we shut up

And it just had to be you

When we take our clothes off

Don't you know the world stops

When we touch, when we kiss

When we shut up for a moment (And it just had to be you)

We are minded by the one thing

You on me or nothing

When we touch, when we kiss,

When we shut up (Shut up, shut up, shut up)

Don't say anything at allUse your tongue to wet your lips

Touch them with your fingertips

Don't say nothing else

Shut up, shut up, shut up, shut up

Only want to hear your breath

Your sigh, your scream, you're nothing less

Don't say nothing else

Shut up, shut up, shut up

Shut upWhen we take our clothes off

Don't you know the world stops

When we touch, when we kiss

When we shut up for a moment (Turn out the light)

We are minded by the one thing (Forget how to fight)

You on me or nothing (We got tonight)

When we touch, when we kiss,

When we shut up

And it just had to be you

When we take our clothes off

Don't you know the world stops

When we touch, when we kiss

When we shut up for a moment (Just shut up, shut up, shut up)

We are minded by the one thing

You on me or nothing

When we touch, when we kiss,

When we shut up (Shut up, shut up, shut up)

Don't say anything at all
