

Falling Dream

Votum

Hello there
Iâ€™d kill for some company
Iâ€™d trade my soul for a whisper
Iâ€™d die for a touch

I canâ€™t seem to feel anything
Sounds familiar?
Now does it move you?
For sure, Iâ€™m not moved an inch.

Itâ€™s this falling dream, never coming true,
This falling dream â€“ I can almost taste it.
Itâ€™s this falling dream, never coming true,
This falling dream â€“
I never fell complete.

Itâ€™s all in this head, scrawled on a doctorâ€™s note
Like a curse â€“
This sentence, it truly is one.
Or is it all in my head?
Waking me up in horror â€“ the fact that Iâ€™m awake.

Iâ€™m here, Iâ€™m not anywhere

I wish I had limbs to move
Wish I had eyes to give a meaningful stare
I wish I had lips to ask, Iâ€™d beg you to let me go
Have mercy, oh mercy â€“

I beg you to let me go,
Seems familiar?
Like a broken record, like broken glass â€“
I stopped counting rays,
I lost count of days.
Years would frighten, if I knew â€“
Itâ€™s like a curse.

Iâ€™m here and Iâ€™m not anywhere
Anywhere

Anywhere

It's this falling dream, never coming true,
I can almost taste it.

It's this falling dream, never coming true,
I never fell completely

I beg you to let me go,
Seems familiar?

Like a broken record, like broken glass

I stopped counting rays,

You know I lost count of days.

Years would frighten, if I knew

It's like a curse.

It's this falling dream, never coming true,

This falling dream " I can almost taste it.

It's this falling dream, never coming true,

This falling dream

I never fell
