

Ain't Gonna Lose You (with Forro In the Dark)

Brett Dennen

You can put a stick in my spokes
I can be the butt of your jokes
I can be the laughing stock, I can be your hoax
But I ain't gonna lose you They can come and tear my house down
They can run me out of town
They can tie me up, call me a clown
But I ain't gonna lose you I can't stand
The thought of another man They can make me turn my back on my friends
Send me away to up in San Quentin
Put me in the hole, a thousand times again
But I ain't gonna lose you Throw me in a hurricane
Tell the whole world I've gone insane
Run an electric shock to my brain
But I ain't gonna lose you I can't stand
The thought of another man I'll sing it from my roof top
I'll sing it from the bus stop
I'll sing it on the street drunk to a cop
But I ain't gonna lose you
