When We Were Free

Los Lobos

I can still feel that moment
That so tender moment
When we would run and laugh and playWe'd sing about it
Even shout about it
Didn't care what they would sayIt was all we wanted
All we needed
And never had to feel afraidI can almost touch it
Can almost hold it
No slipped so ever far awayWe forget that moment
That so precious moment
And let this world steal it from you and meI remember you playing
Remember you laughing
So long ago when we were free
