

The Pilgrim

Iron Maiden

The keys to death and Hell
The ailing kingdom doomed to fail
The bonds of sin and heart will break
The pilgrims' course will take Quelling the Devil's might
And ready for eternal fight
Aching limbs and fainting soul
Holy battles take their toll
Liberty and hope divine
Changing the water into wine
So to you we bid farewell
Kingdom of Heaven to Hell
Spirit holy, life eternal
Raise me up, take me home
Pilgrim sunrise, pagan sunset
Onward journey begun
To courage find and gracious will
Deliver good from ill
Clean the water, clean our guilt
With us, do what you will
Then will my judge appear
Bear no false angels that I hear
For only then I will confess

To my eternal hell
Now give us a holy sign
Changing our water into wine
So to you we bid farewell
Kingdom of Heaven to Hell
Spirit holy, life eternal
Raise me up, take me home
Pilgrim sunrise, pagan sunset
Onward journey begun
Now give us a holy sign
Changing our water into wine
So to you we bid farewell
Kingdom of Heaven to Hell
Spirit holy, life eternal
Raise me up, take me home

Pilgrim sunrise, pagan sunset
Onward journey begun
Spirit holy, life eternal
Raise me up, take me home
Pilgrim sunrise, pagan sunset
Onward journey begun
