

Still Here

Travis Greene

I was thinkin, so deep in sin Til' grace and mercy, decided to take me in and place my feet on a rock to stand its unbelievable i'm not the same man

Thata use to fuss Dance in the closest cuss mixed up true love with luss and got my flesh in some stuff that shouldve taken me out now i can shout about the fact that I'M STILL HERE

i'm still here *3
i'm still here through the rain, through the pain through the tears, and every fear you promised you'll never leave me nor forsake me, and if the devil could kill me he wouldve done it by now i'm still holding on to his hand, standing strong can't comprehend why he would love and keep me stand above me and treat me as if i was cool enough to be called his friend but he still use me even though i know i dont deserve it and he still chose me to perform his work although i know im not worthy and like peter i've denied him more than i can count but god's love refuse to fail me and he always bail me out i'm still here (chrous)
