

You and Your Heart

Jack Johnson

Watch you when you say, what you are
And when you blame everyone, you broken king
Watch you change the frame or watch you when you
Take your aim at the sum of everything But you and your heart
Shouldn't feel so far apart
You can choose what you take
Why you gotta break and make it feel so hard? You lay there in the street like broken glass
Reflecting pieces of the sun, but you're not the flame
You cut the people passing by because you know
What you don't like it's just so easy, it's just so easy But you and your heart
Shouldn't feel so far apart
You can choose what you take
Why you gotta break and make it feel so hard? Oh, and you and your heart
Shouldn't feel so far apart
You can choose what you take
Why you gotta break and make it feel so hard? You draw so many lines in the sand
Lost the fingernails on your hands
How you're gonna scratch any backs?
Better hope the tide will take our lines away Take all our lines and Hope the tide will take our lines and
Hope the tide will take our lines away
Take all our lines away
