Tinsel Town

Shawn Mullins

tinseltown
snakes are crawling down the boulevard of the fallen
--- come and call let's just lay here and dream the world awayI don't wanna go downtown tonight
--- it's just a little too bright I just wanna watch the sun melt down over tinseltown--- street seems so unkind it's hard to tell who's a friend of mine well let's spill some wine and kill some time or just lay here and dream the world awayI don't wanna go downtown tonight all that I know is that I'm feeling alright I just wanna watch the sun melt down over tinseltownI don't wanna go downtown tonight
--- it's just a little too bright
I just wanna watch the sun melt down
over tinseltownI don't wanna go downtown tonight
--- it's just a little too bright
over tinseltown
