You Got The Bomb

Brian Mcknight

I can't remember the last time I felt this way
You're keeping a smile on my face
You know exactly how I tick, every time I light the wick
Seems like you're ready to explode, I want you to know
You got the bomb, just can't get enough
You got the bomb, bomb, just keep on blowin' me up
You got the bomb, bomb, just can't get enough
You got the bomb, bomb, blowin' me up
I recall the first time I kissed your lips
Whenever you want me, girl, I'm there
Whatever the time, girl I don't care
I got no place to go baby, I know
You got the bomb, just can't get enough
You got the bomb, bomb, just keep on blowin' me up
You got the bomb, bomb, just can't get enough
You got the bomb, bomb, blowin' me up
Every day and night I pray
You'll never take your love away
You got the bomb
The bomb
Keep on blowing me up
You got the bomb
Just can't get enough
You got the bomb, bomb
Blowing me up
Yeah yeah yeah yeah
Yeah yeah yeah yeah
Yeah yeah yeah yeah
