

Luv Lies

Aerosmith

Oh... when you cross that line that you know you can't erase
To fall in lust not love ain't no sin at all
And tell me when your wit'chor best friend's friend
Do you still feel outta place
No thanks I took that ride
God only knows I tried believin'
I imagine everyone sometimes
Will cross their heart and hope to die
To tell I love you lies
I imagine everyone survives
For giving up all that you got
To tell I love you lies
The first time you look for love
You find you don't know jack... yeah
So much for mind games you play to win
'Cuz first you lose your heart's desire
Then you get it back
But ignorance ain't bliss
There's so much more behind the kiss...I'm feelin'
I imagine everyone sometimes
Will cross their heart and hope to die
To tell I love you lies
I imagine everyone survives
For giving up all that you got
To tell I love you lies
When loneliness and paranoia feeds me
God help the person...fff...who needs me...yeaah
If ignorance is bliss then take me off the list
I'm leaving
I imagine everyone sometimes
Will cross their hearts and hope to die
To tell I love you lies
I imagine everyone survives
For giving up all that you got
To tell I love you lies
