

Idea for Strings

Gem Club

i feel the pull forces of your spiraling and your salted kiss and i'm chained to the strength of your wave move in towards the center space i will follow where you go in the wake of all these tears there will be no one to pull you out it breaks and forms us i had you singing through my blood you were not concerned want to feel so narrow be the one you need but it's bringing me down
