Our friends on the front porch telling jokes
And they swing swiftly towards happier times
Expending lines and finding more energy for the effort
And getting distance from that front porch spotlight
But us we found peace in shadows
Long enough to see the monsters riseCandy's got some space to fill in her daydreams
Living high on yesterday's lie
Talking to me about some 0% interest
And how she got a better deal than the next guyAnd the way the lightning shocked us
When we were lost and looking down that long missouri highway
Your hair was longer then and now I rememberOh the roads unencumbered by cats
They're burning like wet matches through my miracle mile mindYou left your thumbprint inside me now for months it seems
But mine only brushes your soft surface
And somehow it leaves me listless
My tongue curls under my lips oh yesSo I can't speak to tell you of the months before I met you
And the way the truth it locked us
Right about the time after the lightning shocked usWhen we were young and missing
'round that small new england byway
Our lives they were sheltered then and I now I remember
Well its not even being about that anymore
I gotta get you downThose tiny fragments of perfection
They please me in a time unchanged
When its not the same beginning
Or a long awaited endIf I knew all the words
I would write myself out of here
If I was all the colors
I would paint you pretty in gold
In a picture so I'm told little sisterSo now I'm sold little sister
Why don't you tell me about the sunsets in sweden
And the laws of eden
And how you were the rock of gibraltar
And how they called you foxy
Well that's another whole box of pandoras
That's another whole box of them tiesSlide your foot off the gas
Before we crash right back into the median
It separates our house from the middle of the street
Talking about our houseIs on the front porch telling jokes
And they swing swiftly towards happier times

Expend lines and finding more energy for the effort
And getting distance from that front porch spotlight

But us we found peace in shadows

Long enough to see a monster dieWe all need to find a little space in our daydreams

Long enough and just so long

Long enough, just as long

Just so long as its long enough

Is it long enough

Is it long enough for me

Long enough for me to chew onIf it isn't

If it isn't

If it ain't

If it don't

If it can't

Then it won't

And that's just the way that it goes
