

A Gypsy's Kiss

Deep Purple

John San what you can
La, la, Janette, dance in sand
What's the mystery, my son? Gypsy Dan Caravan
Won Tun Wan with your Chinese fan
History, my son Murder and rape with your power
10th revolution in far away days
It's come to this, Gypsy's Kiss
All your power's gonna fade in the haze [Incomprehensible] Jumme gae bile ya heed
Senorita said, I'll drag your lungs out through your nose
Space truckers free and high
Teamsters get ya by and by
That should keep you on your toes They got a gun at your head
But you ain't necessarily playing their game
They can't resist, Gypsy's Kiss
All that's needed to drive them insane John Wayne, The Alamo
Crazy Horse, Geronimo
I'll smoke a piece with you Mind, body, heart and soul
We got rock and roll
And there's nothing they can do Hear the small voice of truth
Above the shouting despair of the crowd
What do you wish? Gypsy's Kiss
Gets you strong for crying out loud
