I Heard the Owl

Raging Slab

I flipped heaven the finger sold my hand to a bird for a fist fulla' true death i gotta' horn that'll blow your brain like skin balloons on a cobra fang i've heard chicks go pow and guns go bang I heard the owl call my name

I layed the driveway some rubber just to pour on some iron I cleft a hoof on the pedal and drove my ashes to ash where the ground sweats you like bullets and angels dress up white as trash my love came loose like a paper chain when i heard the owl call my name

I could light the fuse on a bible with my breath and a match it keeps gittin' harder and tougher to tell the quick from the stiffs so i'll burn the ghost to a fossil and sink a worm in the devils apple while snakes with lips were kissing people I heard the owl call my name
