Fuck

Riot in Belgium

Let's fuck till the suns comes up
Till the echo rumbling
It's hard to remember, I didn't forget
Don't stop till you're feeling wet
I have no shame, you're no better
One more time we are together
How do you say goodbye
How do you say goodbye
When you've hardly said hello?
The only way we know
The only way we know
The only way we know
How do you say goodbye
When you've hardly said hello?
Let's fuck, fuck, fuck, fuck, fuck
Let's fuck till our lungs give out
It won't be long, it's hard to remember
I didn't forget, let's fuck until our hearts give up
It won't be long, a night to remember, a day to forget
If our lives were diamonds [unverified] we'd be rich
Your voice makes my heart skip beats
So, keep quiet before it quits on me
Your voice makes my heart skip [unverified] beats
So, keep quiet before it flat lines
Before it flat lines, I've been terrible at night
We can only wake up here in this bed
Sunken into you, tangled in sheets
Buried in blankets six foot deep again, kick it
Let's fuck till the suns comes up
Till the echo rumbling
It's hard to remember, I didn't forget
Don't stop till you're feeling wet
I have no shame, you're no better
One more time we are together
How do you say goodbye
How do you say goodbye
When you've hardly said hello?
We're young and in love
Heart attacks waiting to happen

So come on closer
Tell me it's all in our heads
We're young and in love
Heart attacks waiting to happen
So come a little closer
Tell me those three little words
