

Poison in Your Veins

Alter Bridge

[Verse 1]

How long will you cower down
Until you come to see
That courage is the higher ground
That changes destiny
Now only those who dare to win
With no fear of no rewards
The time has come to rise again
You were meant to be much more
Somehow, somehow[Chorus]

It's like poison in your veins
Oh, it's the beast you cannot tame
The way you let your fear burrow inside
Will chew you up and spit you out in time
Release the poison in your veins right now
Right now, oh[Verse 2]

Everything that could have been
Has only failed to be
Cause you've wasted all your precious time
You were too afraid to dream
Well, damn it all to hell I say
Don't you waste another day
It's time for you to own it now
The world is yours to take
Right now[Chorus]

It's like poison in your veins
Oh, it's the beast you cannot tame
The way you let your fear burrow inside
Will chew you up and spit you out in time
So release the poison in your veins
So come on, bleed it out, it's not too late
What you choose to see is falling short
It's time for you to rise and be much more[Bridge]

Don't waste another day
Don't let it slip away
The world is all yours to take
If only you could change[Chorus]
It's like poison in your veins
Oh, it's the beast you cannot tame

The way you let your fear burrow inside
Will chew you up and spit you out in time
So release the poison in your veins
Come on, bleed it out, it's not too late
What you choose to see is falling short
It's time for you to rise and be much more
Release the poison in your veins right now[Outro]
Right now
Right now
Right now
