

Prisoner

Stumfol

I was born in a prison with no hope for escape I got used to the silence as I stuck in my cage you can not miss what you have never seen before but deep inside you know there must be more

I heard a voice but I could not follow it was a language I didn't know I've seen a light and it used to blind me was it real or just a dream?

as I left no one tried to stop me so I learned,
I was always as free as I wanted to be
I was always as free as a bird
I was always as free as I wanted to be but I was just too scared to see who I could be
