

Pain Is a Master

GOJIRA

Crawling and moaning in the sharp blade of grass
All my life starting over, blood spilled inside out
I went through this cycle of pain deep in myself
Destroyed by awful hands, a demon of illusion
The pain now awaken, I'm cracking wide open
Can barely recognize my body, a battlefield
    Unquestioned pride once so fragile
    I cannot even recall names or faces
    Those standing on my sideMy side
    I am nothing the pain awake is forging me
        Face down, inert
        Forcing me, dreams haunting me
    I am immense, I am awake, renewed
        Lost in the darkest time
    I know I felt their presence
        Even if I was blind
    Pain, please forgive my ignorance
        My master
