

The Poisoned Well

Quasi

You only hurt the one you love
That may be true
But better said, you only hurt the one who loves you We went through hell
Just to get to hell
Die of thirst of drink up from the poisoned well I kept the things inside
At least I never lied
I'm not trying to document my suicide You won't live long
But you may write the perfect song
Please excuse those who choose to not play along
