

Roll Along, Roll Away

Corey Cyr

Roll along lady
Roll away gal
I gotta good woman
And she knows too well
Take a step from my door
I don't want what you sell
Roll along babe, roll awayRoll along down
To desperation town
Where all the lips are red
But the water is brown
Where ya take good men
And make 'em graveyard bound
Roll along babe, roll awayRoll along lady
Roll away honey
I gotta good woman
To spend all my money
I'll tell ya now baby
These games ain't funny
Roll along babe, roll awayRoll along honey
Roll away babe
I love my woman
You're a little too late
There ain't no way
Your soul can be saved
Roll along babe, roll away
Roll along babe, roll away
Roll along babe, roll away
