Cover Up

Name Taken

Do you remember when you and I
Were less than us and we
Covered up what little was left of me
And became one in the sameThe colors fading into nothing
The lines are blurring and escaping
I can't breathe alone
You know, you know
The better part of me is stolen
Whenever you goWe fell fast
Proved our fates wrong at last
With nothing left to show
We get up slow,
Let it rest the more we know
It proves how long we'll lastThe colors fading into nothing
The lines are blurring and escaping
I can't breathe alone
You know, you know
The better part of me is stolen
Whenever you goCloser than before,
Further than I've ever been from anyone
Closer than before,
Further than I've ever been from anyoneCover up, wrap your wrists in gauze
Fill your heart with cause
If it's real or not, no
Cover up, wrap your wrists in gauze
Fill your heart with cause
If it's real or not, noThe colors fading into nothing
The lines are blurring and escaping
I can't breathe alone
You know, you know
The better part of me is stolen
Whenever you go
