Two People

Pages

(lead vocals: Steve Farris)
Can't hide away, unspoken words I need to say
Our journeys end, but our dreams go on unchanged
Look to my heart now, go to the stars now
For they wait in time for a chance to shine their love on us
Two people holding onto love, as two people who are one together
Don't ask why, just take my hand and wave goodbye
Who's to say we can't find love tonight
We're all alone now, we're almost home now
To that welcome place, far beyond the trace of our time
Two people holding onto love, as two people who are one together
Two people, looking for a world, as two people who are one forever (forever)
(Solo)
Two people holding onto love, as two people who are one together (together)
Two people holding onto love, as two people who are one forever (forever)
Two people holding onto love, as two people who are one forever
