You Gave Up On Love (2.0)

Boston

You gave up on love
You gave up so easily
You gave up on loveYou say love is all you need
So the story goes
There's no changin' what you believe
But you're the one who knowsYou gave up on love
You gave up so easily
Guess you're not so tough
You gave up on everything love could beSaw the way so long ago
Guess it was beyond us
You won't say but you still know
You just broke your promiseYou gave up on love
You gave up so easily
Guess your not so tough
You gave up on everything love could beHey you run to me but it's just not enough
Hey you couldn't see that you had to be
You had to be in loveYou gave up on love (you gave up on love)
You gave up on everything (you gave up on love)
(You gave up on love)
(You gave up on everything)You gave up on love
You gave up so easilyYou gave up on love
You gave up on everything love could be
