Something Between Us

Project Theory

Something connects us,
And it's the things left in the past(VERSE 1)
You've lost your path, you've lost your trust
You hate everyone around from the first to the last
And it's your past, but I don't know, what bothers you the most and the reason is unknown yet
You used to tell me what is happening to you,
Now you turned your back around to the things you're going through
You have to fight, you have to fight till the end,
Until you make things right, it's yourself that you defend(CHORUS)
There's a power that changes us,
But if you're strong enough you'll find,
That something connects us,
And it's the things left in the past(VERSE 2)
Now if you want something that you never had,
You have to do something that you've never done before
Runaway to a place that your mind wanna run,
And don't forget that you'll never be alone
Please don't search for the perfection in your life,
It's something that unfortunately you'll never find
You have to fight, you have to fight till the end,
Until you make things right, it's yourself that you defend(CHORUS)
There's a power that changes us,
But if you're strong enough you'll find,
That something connects us,
And it's the things left in the past(BRIDGE)
You can't change me (x4)You can't change me (x3)
Keep my distance
Go away(CHORUS)
There's a power that changes us,
But if you're strong enough you'll find,
That something connects us,
And it's the things left in the past (x2)
