The Other Side

Tiny Tim

One nigh is brown the other is brown
I am a fish
I swim around
You say I'm lost
I disagree
The map has changed and with it, meGliding through the seaweed what strange things I see below
Cars are waiting windshields wiping
Nowhere left to go!
Oh...The ice caps are melting
Oh, ho, ho ho
All the world is drowning
Ho, ho ho, ho ho
The ice caps are melting
the tide is rushing in
All the world is drowning
to wash away the sinThe seagull flies in search of land
The children hide beneath the sand
As golden toys come floating down
I play the fish
I swim around
Gliding through the seaweed
Cars are waiting
Nowhere left to go!Oh...The ice caps are melting
Oh, ho, ho ho
All the world is drowning
to wash away the sinNow everybody sing!

I tell you, my dear friend...
Oh how wonderful it is!
Know that whoever you are we can all be happy and singing!No matter if you're out there parked to that car along the highway Or whether you're at home, sitting by the radio Or whether you're having them good meals Or whether you're by the TV set Let everyone sing about those melting ice caps how they're coming down into the sea and let us all have a swimming time, as we sing;The ice caps are melting
to wash away the sin
