Criminal

Finger Eleven

I thought about a friend's advice
He told me to forget your eyes
'Cause your heart's encased
In knives and frozen fast
He told me you were out of bounds
I'm beginning to believe that now
Still I wish it wasn't me
That you were looking as goodI must be invisible
Maybe I'm not what you're looking for
But you caught my eye like a criminal
And I can't stop seeing you anymoreI think your drink is almost done
I'm gonna try to buy you one
I'm hoping I can join
The fun and raise a glass
I'm watching everything you do
I wonder if you see me too
I stole a look and I could swear
That you were looking backI must be invisible
Maybe I'm not what you're looking for
But you caught my eye like a criminal
And I can't stop seeing you anymoreOh I must be invisible
Maybe I'm not what you're looking for
But you caught my eye like a criminal
And I can't stop seeing you anymoreOh and I never found the one to replace her
So I'm gonna have myself to anotherGirl I must be invisible
Maybe I'm not what you're looking for
But you caught my eye like a criminal
And I can't stop seeing you anymoreOh I must be invisible
Maybe I'm not what you're looking for
But you caught my eye like a criminal
And I can't stop seeing you anymore oh
