

Live It Up

Bowling for Soup

Me, I never had a clue, now me, I've got you
Me and you've got something that has long been overdue
I hope you hang around, maybe we'll get down
We'll get down and boogie and we're gonna paint the town
So honey take my hand, can I please have this dance? I'm all in I'm gonna live it up, right now
Everybody give it up, right now You know it's been too long
It's been too long, it's been too long since I've felt this way
It's been too long, it's been too long
It's been too long, I guess, I've never felt this way You, such a dream come true, to me a dream is you
I love to watch you laugh and sing like only you can do
So won't you hold my hand
Save me your last dance, I'm all in we're gonna live up, right now
Everybody give it up, right now You know it's been too long
It's been too long, it's been too long since I've felt this way
It's been too long, it's been too long
It's been too long, I guess, I've never felt this way And I'll be happy ever after you'll be mine
Now my whole world's brighter with you here by my side Everybody live it up, right now
Everybody give it up, right now
(Let's live it up right now)
Everybody live it up, right now
(Let's live it up right now)
Everybody give it up, right now
(Let's live it up) You know it's been too long
It's been too long, it's been too long
Since I've felt this way
It's been too long, it's been too long, too long
Since I've felt this way
(Too long)
Since I've felt this way
(Too long)
I guess I've never felt this way
