Then You'll Know (feat. Anita Kerr Singers)

Patsy Cline

You don't know the meaning
Of the words, 'I love you so'
But when you've found your one love
Then you'll knowYou don't know the heartache
Or the laughter you'll forgo
Until you've lost that one love
Then you'll knowNow you pretend to care for me
But honey, if you do
Why don't you give the kind of kiss
I always give to youSo, I've just made my mind up
Even tho' my tears will flow
Go on and find a new love
Then you'll knowNow you pretend to care for me
But honey, if you do
Why don't you give the kind of kiss
I always give to youSo, I've just made my mind up
Even tho' my tears will flow
Go on and find a new love
Then you'll knowThen you'll know
