

Especially in Michigan

Red Hot Chili Peppers

Life is my friend
Rake it up to take it in
Wrap me in your cinnamon
Especially in Michigan
Well I could be your friend White clouds I'm in A mitten full of fisherman
C'mon huckleberry finn
Show me how to make her grin
Well I'm in Michigan Cry me a future
Where the revelations run amok
Ladies and gentlemen
Lions and tigers come running
Just to steal your luck A rainy Lithuanian
Who's dancing as an Indian
Painted in my tiger skin
Especially in Michigan Double chins and bowling pins
Unholy Presbyterians
Land is full of medicine
I find it when I'm slipping in The tainted new librarian (into Michigan)
Who fainted when she tucked you in
Let's float away like zeppelins
On stoic gusts of northern wind Cry me a future
Where the revelations run amok
Ladies and gentlemen
Lions and tigers come running
Just to steal your luck Out on the farm we'll be
Swimming with the mother duck
Deep in the mitten where
Lions and tigers come running
Just to steal your luck Life is my friend
Underwater violins
Order now from ho chi min
A porcelain that comes in twins Throw me in the looney bin
'Cause I can take it on the chin (when I'm in Michigan)
The cleavage of your pillow skin
Is moving like a violin Cry me a future
Where the revelations run amok
Ladies and gentlemen
Lions and tigers come running

Just to steal your luck
Out on the farm we'll be
Swimming with the mother duck
Deep in the mitten where
Lions and tigers come running
Just to steal your luck, yeah

Songwriters

Anthony Kiedis, Chad Smith, John Frusciante, Michael 'Flea' Balzary
Published by
Lyrics © MoeBeToBlame, Universal Music Publishing Group
Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>