Element

Kyshera

From the ashes it will rise
As it will do everytime
And as surely it will multiply
'cos those that seek will always find

Not of body, not of mind
Trancending all space & time
It's everywhere all the time
Like a virus to a lie

Has no agenda or beliefs
With no allegiances to keep
Has no feelings, has no needs
And can bring an empire to its knees

Can't be killed or disappeared
Can't be silenced out of fear
You can't ignore it, cannot bribe
And it finds the guilty everytime

The most powerful weapon
Only costs a question
There's nothing its enemies can do
To stop the power of The Truth
