

Immortality

Gerald Jay Markoe

Vacate is a word
Vengeance has no place so near to her
    Cannot find a comfort
    In this worldArtificial tears
        The vessel's stabbed
        Next up, volunteers
Vulnerable, wisdom can't adhereA truant finds home
    And a will to hold on
        There's a trapdoor in the sun
    It's immortalityAs privileged as a whore
        Victims in demand for public show
        Swept out through the cracks
    Beneath the doorHolier than thou, how?
        Surrendered, executed anyhow
        Scrawls dissolved
    Cigar box on the floorA truant finds home
        And a will to hold on to
There's a trapdoor in the sunIt's immortalityI cannot stop the thought
    Running out the door
        Coming up a which way sign
And all good truants must decideOh, stripped and sold, mom
    And an auctioned forearm
And whiskers in the sinkA truant finds home
    And a will to hold on to
        Some die just to live, oh
