The Favourite

D-SIDE

Goodbyes are so sad so blue
Girl my life won't be the same without you
No one else could love you in the way I do
If anybody hurts you
I'll break in two
I tell you.The favorite won't win
Not in every race it's running
I still believe I'll get lucky
That my time will come
When I get to hold you closer than anyoneSome people
They'll promise you things they'll show you credit cards and Gucci rings
When you realize that something more is missing
When you open up your eyes
That's where I'll beThe favorite won't win
Not in every race it's running
I still believe I'll get lucky
That my time will come
When I get to hold you closer than anyoneI can't believe girl, the way you look today
Every time I need you, your so fay away
I hate to see you caught up in the chase
I don't want to finish here forever
In second placeThe favorite won't win
Not in every race it's running
I still believe I'll get lucky
That my time will come
When I get to hold you closer than anyoneHow long, long is the road
To make you love me
Love me again
Tell me
How long, long should I wait
What would it take to make you
Come back againThe favorite won't win
Not in every race it's running
I still believe I'll get lucky
That my time will come
When I get to hold you closer than anyoneThe favorite won't win
Not in every race it's running
I still believe I'll get lucky

That my time will come
When I get to hold you closer than anyone
