

Learn My Lesson

Rizzle Kicks

No, I don't think I could confess to sin and I scratch my mind, cause the question is when will I learn my lesson, when will I learn my lesson.
I just stride for the best of things,
and I scratch my mind, cause the question is
when will I learn my lesson, when will I learn my lesson. I never learn the mental persons spendings earning nightly complains when the rent is burning pockets in his nice jeans, blimey the one who's quick to mock a person's styley.
or didn't stop to clock the person standing right behind me.
yeah, very quick to hit the snooze on his alarm clock or thinks it's pretty stupid why he's booted from his last job. ticket guy will come to check your park spot (dickhead) or think to ticket you a minute after your charge stops. No, I don't think I could confess to sin and I scratch my mind, cause the question is
when will I learn my lesson, when will I learn my lesson.
I just stride for the best of things,
and I scratch my mind, cause the question is
when will I learn my lesson, when will I learn my lesson. la la la la la la la x2 I ask myself, when will I learn my lesson. See, I've gotta learn that not everyone is okay that you've encountered or try explaining to a bouncer that his name is not bouncer.
when his mates all surround ya, and you've paid to come out so why they stopped you from having fun but nowadays they'll bounce ya the amount of times I've wound up in a crisis well, I used to like this chick but then I found out she's a right bitch did I miss the point, I get tripped up at every turn the art of learning lesson's is a lesson that I never learnt. a lesson that I never learnt, a lesson that I never learnt, a lesson that I never learnt. I ask myself, when will I learn my lesson. No, I don't think I could confess to sin and I scratch my mind, cause the question is
when will I learn my lesson, when will I learn my lesson.
I just stride for the best of things,
and I scratch my mind, cause the question is
when will I learn my lesson, when will I learn my lesson. x2 yeah yeah
