

The Dumbing Down of Love

Frou Frou

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Well painted passion, you rightly suspect
Impersonation, the dumbing down of love
Jaded in anger, love underwhelms you
No box of chocolates, whichever way you fall
And if I tell you, lover alone without love
What will happen, lover alone without love
Will you miss him?
Lover alone without, without love
No, no I'll get this, I want to treat you
You're still not famous and you haven't struck it rich
Underachieving, 'cause no one's receiving
This tunnel vision, it's turning out all wrong
And if I tell you, lover alone without love
What will happen, lover alone without love
Will you miss him?
Love alone without, without love
Music is worthless
Unless it can
Make a complete stranger
Break down and cry
And if I tell you, lover alone without love
And what will happen, lover alone without love
Will you listen
Lover alone without, without love
Without love, without love
