Crave

Drain S.T.H.

And so I can't ignore, my heart is bruised and sore
My sanctuary has been raked, been raked
My soul is colored red, from all the love I bled
My crucifixion is complete, complete
Now I need a substitute for the love that you gaveNow I just can't be saved
And there is no salvation for me, yeah
My sin was to touch but I wanted it too much
Now I know that I've fallen from grace, yeahNo matter how I try, I still can't justify My absolution is denied, denied
And so I'm left to burn, my body craves and yearns
The beast inside me is alive, alive
Now I need a substitute for the love that you gaveNow I just can't be saved
And there is no salvation for me, yeah
My sin was to touch but I wanted it too much
Now I know that I've fallen from grace, yeahAnd so I'm left to burn, my body craves and yearns
My absolution is deniedThe love that you gave, now I just can't be saved
And there is no salvation for me, yeah
My sin was to touch but I wanted it too much
Now I know that I've fallen from grace, yeahThe love that you gave, now I just can't be saved
And there is no salvation for me, yeah
My sin was to touch but I wanted it too much
Now I know that I've fallen from grace, yeah
