

You Didn't Try to Call Me

The Mothers of Invention

You didn't try to call me, why didn't ya try, didn't ya try?
Didn't ya know I was lonely?
No matter who I take home, I keep on calling your name
And you, I need you so bad, 'cause you're the one, babe Tell me, tell me who's lovin' ya now
'Cause it worries my mind and I can't sleep at all
I stayed home on Friday just to wait for your call And you didn't try to call me, why didn't ya try, didn't ya try?
Didn't ya know I was lonely?
No matter who I take home, I keep on calling your name
And you, I need you so bad, 'cause you're the one, babe Tell me, tell me who's lovin' ya now
'Cause it worries my mind and I can't sleep at all
I stayed home on Friday just to wait for your call I can't say what's right or what's wrong
But I love you
All ya gotta do is call me babe
'Cause I want you You make me feel so excited girl
I got so hung up on you from the moment that we met
And no matter how I try, I can't keep the tears
From running down my face, I'm all alone in my place You didn't try to call me, why didn't ya try, didn't ya try?
Didn't ya know I was lonely?
Why didn't ya try, didn't ya try, didn't ya know I was lonely? I stayed home all afternoon man
I was working on my car, I fixed the upholstery
I fixed the seat so it would tilt back
We were going to go to the drive-in and you didn't call me man I waited, it was Friday night, I remember man
It was nine o'clock and I was sitting on home
I was still watching television and ya didn't try to call me
We'd been going steady for six weeks
And I thought you were my teenage prill I thought you were my teen angel man
But you didn't call me, I dig ya so much man, why didn't ya call me
If you could have seen me in the afternoon
I was hung up, I even washed the car I, I reprimed the right front fender man
We were gonna go, we were gonna go out
And get some root beer afterwards man
And I was gonna show everybody my new carburettor
And ya didn't try to call me
