Safer Than Love

Bell X1

You wanna snap every thread that's unraveling
If you're not careful you'll have nothing left on
You keep checking your dam and your barriers
Smart arse and your taser-tongue
I hate to see you close all these avenues
You cut and run when push comes to shove
You say I'm not being facetious
But it's safer than love
What could be safer, safer than love?
What could be safer than love?
What could be safer, safer than love?
What could be safer than love?
You get the fear after two weeks of squeezing
Remember, breathe in and breathe out
You say a girl eats two kilos of lipstick
In her lifetime and for what?
What could be safer, safer than love?
What could be safer than love?
What could be safer, safer than love?
What could be safer than love?
What could be safer, safer than love?
What could be safer than love?
I'll be the gin in your cistern
Yeah, I'll be whatever you need
I'll be the gin in your cistern
I know you never believed those sisters
When they told you about those patent shoes
I hope someday you catch your reflection
And see how beautiful you are
What could be safer, safer than love?
What could be safer than love?
What could be safer, safer than love?
What could be safer than love?
Safer than love, safer than love
Safer than love, safer than love
Safer than love, safer than love
Safer than love, safer than love
Safer than love, safer than love
