Lifeline

Ben Harper

Life is too short to wonder
Who's gonna make the next move
And will it slowly pull you under
When you've always got something to prove
I don't want to wait a lifetime
Yours or mine
Yours or mine
Can't you see me reaching for the lifeline
Your lifeline (x4)
You say that I misheard you
But I think you misspoke
I hear you laugh so loudly while I patiently wait for joke

I don't want to wait a lifetime
Not yours
Not mine
Can't you see me reaching for the lifeline
Your lifeline (x4)
It's a crime with only victims
We're all laid out in a row
And it's hardest to listen to what we already should know
I could hold out for a lifetime
Yours or mine
Yours and mine
Can't you see me reaching for your lifeline
Your lifeline (x4)
