

I Need Love

Bosson

I need love
I want love
The time was not right
Blinded by magic in my baby's eyes
All I ever dreamed of
I saw you in white, walking by my side
But I still believe that one day
Things work out for you and me
And I still believe we can't be friends
There's so much more for us to be
I need love, I need you
I want love, I want you
I need love
(Nothing's been the same since you walked out that door)
I need you
(You are everything that I've been looking for)
I need love, I need you
So full of life and so many things
That you wanted to
My world was too small for you
So try your wings the way I used to do
But I still believe that one day
When your world is cold and mean
You will fly back home where you belong
To the luckiest man you've seen
I need love, I need you
I want love, I want you
I need love
(Nothing's been the same since you walked out that door)
I need you
(You are everything that I've been looking for)
I need love, I need you
So when I miss you like crazy
I just take a walk to our place down by the sea
To make a wish on a falling star
And I wish you were here with me
With me, with me, with me
I need love, I need you
I want love, I want you

I need love
(Nothing's been the same since you walked out that door)

I need you
(You are everything that I've been looking for)

I want love, I want you
You are the one I want
You are the one I need
You are the one I want
You are the one I need
