Lawless

Colours

hey you, you're dangerous
hey you, you're dangerous okay, okay I know it okay, okay I see it all the things that I would say things to make it okay okay, okay you show it okay, okay so show me things to make me go insane things to make it your way you were lawless...anyway you want it goes made me heartless...and made me want a little more now I find us right where we were before looking for a little moreyou're dangerousokay, okay it's over okay, okay I told her everything has gone your way we repeat history
okay, okay control it
okay, okay control me
control me
looking for a little moreyou're dangerousokay, okay control it
looking for a little moreyou're dangerous
you're dangerous
