

March of the Poozers

Devin Townsend Project

We are the ones who come for your rapture
All you shall bow to the will of your captive warrior So for the war comes a man for your people
Hail to the man for the world of my people
Warrior... War. Watching, waiting, you are alone.
We are coming...
Eyes to sky and the stars! Hey ho, everyone is ready to arrive
And everyone prepared to give their lives
And there is no escape to steel us... armoury, arming me. Prepare!
Fear us! We are the ones who have slaves over masters
All you shall bow to your alien ambassadors
Warrior. You are a part of me, and though you're alone... Mommy's watching... waiting, you are alone
We are coming
Eyes to sky and the stars! Hey ho, everyone is ready to arrive
And everyone prepared to give their lives
And there is no escape to steel us... armoury, arming me.
