Godsmack

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Make me lie when I open (without even knowing)
Wasting time dragging me down (through everything that's broken)
Tried so hard to impress me (by pushing up against me)
Wait for one more second so you can still correct meTake me, try to break me open
Why? 'cause I know something
Hate me, try to make me change what's right
So fuck my lifeTime stands still when I'm with you (but you make me want to kill you)
How am I supposed to break through? (I can't even understand you)
I don't mind watching you crumble (for everything you do to me)
Why do you push so hard and constantly try to test me?Take me, try to break me open
Why? 'cause I know something
Hate me, try to make me change what's right
So fuck my lifeTake me, try to break me open
Why? 'cause I know you hate your life
So fuck my lifeTake me, and try to break me
Hate me, fuck my life
Take me, and try to break me
Hate me, fuck my lifeTake me, try to break me open
Why? 'cause I know something
Hate me, try to make me change what's right
So fuck my lifeTake me, try to break me open
Why? 'cause I know you hate your life
So fuck my lifeTake me, break me
Hate me, don't try to change me
Take me, break me, take me, hate me, break me
Fuck my life
