Mason

The Happy Birthday Singers

I wanna be your mason baby,
I wanna build a life with you
I wanna be your mason baby,
I wanna build a life with you I wanna take all this love I'm feeling and know that it's stronger than stealing you
I wanna be your mason baby,
I wanna build a life with you
I wanna be your mason baby,
I wanna build a life with you
I wanna take all the loving things you say and....claiming you Yeah, Yeah, Yeah
Bridges burn and buildings fall and time can tear down walls leaving you begging on your knees time may steal your human ways leave lines upon your face, leave you drifting out to sea but you will always have a hold me

I wanna be your mason baby,
I wanna build a life with you I wanna be your mason baby, I wanna build a life with you I want to drink you up like a cool spring water and lay holy bricks and mortar with you
I want to drink you up like a cool spring water
and lay holy bricks and mortar with you
I wanna be your mason baby,
I wanna build a life with you
