

Last Hard Bible

Kasey Chambers

I sold my last hard Bible
Just to pay my bills
I called my mother
To reserve me in her will And the pay I'm getting every Thursday night
Well, it just don't seem enough
Well, money can buy me a hell of a lot
But it sure won't buy me love Well, I brought me a car
And I brought me a road train
Car won't go, the trains to slow So I found me a mansion
On the highest hillside
Bigger then this town
But it don't feel like home I sold my last hard Bible
Just to pay my bills
I called my mother
To reserve me in her will And the pay I'm getting every Thursday night
Well, it just don't seem enough
Well, money can buy me a hell of a lot
But it sure won't buy me love Well, I spent my cash
On a brand new heartache
I spent my time
Trying to make it back He took my heart
And he took my savings
He took the train
And left me on the track I sold my last hard Bible
Just to pay my bills
I called my mother
To reserve me in her will And the pay I'm getting every Thursday night
Well, it just don't seem enough
Well, money can buy me a hell of a lot
But it sure won't buy me love I sold my last hard Bible
Just to pay my bills
I called my mother
To reserve me in her will And the pay I'm getting every Thursday night
Well, it just don't seem enough
Well, money can buy me a hell of a lot
But it sure won't buy me love

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>