

Fallen Down

Epic Soundtracks

What is the point of me writing this song?
You'll never hear it now you have gone
I could write you a letter or give you a call
But Iâ€™m too scared is the truth of it at all

And Iâ€™ve fallen down you know Iâ€™ve fallen right down
Iâ€™m trying hard to pick myself off the ground

All of the time we were too care-not
I never knew what you were looking for
And where you always go in such a rush
Searching for a life thatâ€™s dangerous

And Iâ€™ve fallen down you know Iâ€™ve fallen right down
Iâ€™m trying hard to pick myself off the ground

I donâ€™t have a work I just stay at home
Itâ€™s so much safer when youâ€™re on your own
I remember the way things used to be
But I donâ€™t want just a memory

And Iâ€™ve fallen down you know Iâ€™ve fallen right down
Iâ€™m trying hard to pick myself off the ground

Oh Iâ€™ve been called from across the sea
Get out of London you know itâ€™s killing me
I remember the way things used to be
But I donâ€™t want just a memory

And Iâ€™ve fallen down you know Iâ€™ve fallen right down
Iâ€™m trying hard to pick myself off the ground

Faith not fading [Ñ 8]
